Suspension of Parking Fee Collection

REGISTRY

B-6-9-1

National Headquarters, All Federal Agencies

On March 13, 1981, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia refused to stay a decision and order of the District Court enjoining the Government from the assessment of charges against Federal employees for use of Government-controlled parking spaces pursuant to the General Services Administration (GSA) Federal Property Management Regulations (FPMR), Temporary Regulation D-65. Accordingly, effective March 14, 1981, and until further notice, all Federal agencies subject to the regulation shall immediately suspend fee collections, except as noted below.

Agencies may continue to collect and deposit parking facility management fees from employees at those facilities which previously had such a fee prior to November 1, 1979, when Temporary Regulation D-65 became effective. For those agencies which intend to continue to collect management fees at parking facilities which were first imposed subsequent to November 1, 1979, and with respect to any parking arrangement for Federal employees not covered by this memorandum, GSA approval will be required. Contact Ms. Sharon Roach (FTS 8-566-0430) or Mr. Paul H. Herndon III (FTS 8-566-1875) at GSA for such approval.

The court's order does not preclude the collection of full parking charges where excess Government-controlled parking areas have been outleased, pursuant to authority other than Temporary Regulation D-65.

All parking spaces will continue to be assigned in accordance with Temporary Regulation D-65, as modified by this guidance, and issuance of permits should not be discontinued.

Refund Policy. This matter is still pending before the U.S. District Court which has not yet ruled on this subject. Agencies should take no action regarding refunds until further notice.

All records pertaining to user fee charges collected and parking permits issued since November 1, 1979, shall be collected by each agency and retained until further notice.

Further guidance will be provided at a later date.
